How will you apply the course content to your current job assignment?

Using the communication skills practiced

Utilize strategies effectively

I will use these strategies to communicate daily in my role.

The practice in triads was very helpful. Taking turns in each role gave each of us opportunity to learn from one another. I will be able to use these skills when communicating with my co-teachers.

I feel the training will help me work with my candidates better.

I will use it to create daily reflection/debrief time with my candidates.

I plan to implement communication and mentoring strategies from the get go.

I would like to suggest this follow-up course:

none at this time

Revisit what's working for individuals and what has been tweaked.

Other comments or suggestions:

I am new to this whole HU105 concept. I would like to have an outline in a hard copy of my expectations and step - by - step clarification of how to organize with my candidates. Right now, because of summer, I am feeling out of touch with how this is going to look. I will be attending the orientation August 13, but, I begin teaching August 18 for my prekindegarten class and I am concerned how this will impact my connection with my candidates.

Loved the facility.

Not at this time. The training was motivating and empowering. I appreciated the pacing and the content. The instructors were able to meet their pacing expectations, yet go with the ebb and flow of the participants needs.
